

Postal Bank submission.

To Whom it may Concern,

I would like to add my voice in making Australia Post a peoples bank and an election issue. Breaking the strangle hold on the big four is something that is desperately needed in this country, We are beholden to a mafia style racket which has to be called out, the people need another service that can offer competitive rates without being in bed with the big four.

Kind Regards,
Peter Ivosevic